

Comprehensive Signage Guidelines

Overview The Parks Foundation and Allegheny County have adopted a comprehensive set of signage guidelines that will create a more unified image throughout the parks when they are eventually installed. The goal is to make wayfinding in the parks easier and eliminate a cluttered appearance from various generations of styles, sizes and colors. The Parks Foundation collaborated with the Pittsburgh Parks Conservancy and Kolano Design to develop the guidelines.

Partners Allegheny County and Pittsburgh Parks Conservancy

Funding Allegheny Regional Asset District

Allegheny County Parks Foundation

We work together to improve, conserve, and restore the nine Allegheny County parks.